

I believe that the media plays a crucial role in the working of democracy, by helping ensure an informed and educated electorate. By forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election, Sinclair Broadcasting is not serving the public, but rather a political party. I believe that this action by Sinclair Broadcasting is not reporting, but a huge corporate donation to a political party, and should be regulated as such.

Thank you very much.